BOGO Ivermectin Deal – No Fooling!

Are you taking ivermectin once a week? Before and after you fly? Only when you get a cold? For cancer? I know people using ivermectin for one or more of these reasons.

Before Covid, most of us knew nothing about ivermectin. Today, millions of Americans buy it here and overseas. The U.S. price is outrageous for a pill that costs a few cents to make. But that's changing. Eleven states have legislation to make it an over-the-counter drug. And a pharmacy in The Epoch Times advertised a Buy One Get One Free special combining ivermectin and hydroxychloroquine.

Soon buying ivermectin may be as simple as, and safer than, buying Tylenol off the shelf. It may be April Fool's Day but that's no fooling.
